

GP appointments at evenings & weekends

Feeling unwell and need advice when your practice is closed? Same-day appointments are available locally on evenings and at weekends if you need one.

Weekdays 6pm - 10pm
Weekends & Bank Holidays 9am - 3pm

This NHS service is known as GP Care Wakefield and is staffed by local GPs and other healthcare staff.

Just call your practice number as usual, even when closed, to speak to a clinician straightaway.

Urgent care

Feeling unwell suddenly or not registered with a local GP? Wakefield has two urgent care options:

King Street Walk-in Centre Open 10am-10pm. Seven days a week.

A nurse-led service that provides assessment, advice and treatment of minor illnesses and a selection of minor injuries.

The service is unable to treat: ongoing care for pre-existing or long-term conditions, dental problems. In the following cases: pregnancy-related issues, babies under 6 months, head injuries in under 2s or over 65s, you will be assessed and re-directed appropriately. The service is unable to offer x-rays, repeat prescriptions or fit notes.

Urgent Treatment Centre at Pontefract Hospital Open 24 hours a day. Seven days a week.

Fast, expert care for minor injuries and illness that are not life-threatening.

The service is run by GPs and specialist nurses.

If you're feeling unwell and not sure which health service can help you right now, call 111.

NHS 111 is available 24/7. They provide health advice for non life-threatening emergencies.

They can also book you an appointment with a healthcare professional if you need one.

Pharmacists are highly trained healthcare professionals who can advise and treat a range of minor illnesses, without the need to visit your GP.

No appointment is needed and most pharmacies now have private consulting areas.

Many pharmacies are open during evenings and weekends too.

Make an appointment at your GP practice if you are feeling unwell physically or mentally.

GPs and nurses deal with a whole range of health problems by appointment or sometimes over the phone.

For urgent appointments when your practice is closed, just ring your GP's normal number.

King Street Walk-in Centre and the Urgent Treatment Centre at Pontefract Hospital provide urgent care for non-life threatening minor illnesses and minor injuries. See the back of this leaflet for more details.

An appointment is not necessary but you may have to wait as people are seen in order of clinical need.

If someone is very seriously ill with a life-threatening condition, call 999.

A&E is located at Pinderfields Hospital and provides immediate emergency care for people who are seriously ill or are badly injured.

Emergency services are very busy. They should only be used in very serious or life-threatening situations.
